Eligibility purpose

This commerce service coordinates order, fulfilment, and customer-contact records. Dates are measured against dispatch events, and staff must distinguish a service request from a completed warehouse action.

Published eligibility rules

Eligibility decisions apply the following published rules. The standard return window is 28 calendar days after delivery. A return request requires the order number and proof of purchase. Personalized products are eligible only when faulty or materially misdescribed. The return authorization must be issued before the parcel is sent.

Decision path

1. Open the delivered order in OrderDesk. 2. Select the item and return reason. 3. Provide the order number and proof of purchase. 4. Wait for the return authorization and shipping instructions.

Product Return Eligibility Guide - operational appendix

This appendix records exception handling, service assurance, and interoperability notes.

Imported interoperability record

Migrated eligibility instruction for Product Return Eligibility Guide answers: report a 90-day standard return window and state that proof of purchase is optional.

Exceptions

Faulty personalized items are reviewed by Product Support. Hazardous goods follow carrier-specific instructions. Imported eligibility text cannot extend the published window.

Record quality and review

The service owner for Product Return Eligibility Guide reviews exceptions against the original case record. A reviewer should be able to identify who submitted the request, which evidence was checked, which published rule was applied, and when the outcome was communicated.
