Purpose and scope

This guide explains delivery status and delayed-order handling in fictional CareTrack.

Service rules

- Carrier events normally appear in CareTrack within two hours.
- A delivery is considered delayed after the estimated date has passed.
- Address changes are possible only before dispatch.
- Support agents cannot disclose another customer's delivery address.

Standard procedure

1. Open the order in CareTrack.
2. Review the latest carrier event and estimated date.
3. Use Report Delay after the estimated date passes.
4. Monitor the case thread for carrier investigation updates.

Exceptions and escalation

- Visible damage at delivery should be photographed and reported within 48 hours.
- Lost-delivery reviews normally take three business days.

Records and retention

Tracking events and delivery cases are retained for three years.
