Purpose and scope

This document explains applications and renewal for a fictional Westmere library card.

Service rules

- A standard adult membership is valid for three years.
- Applicants provide photo identification and proof of local address.
- Digital borrowing is available after the email address is confirmed.
- Children under 16 require a guardian's consent.

Standard procedure

1. Apply through CivicAccess or at a library branch.
2. Provide the required identity and address evidence.
3. Confirm the registration email.
4. Collect the physical card or activate the digital card.

Exceptions and escalation

- Visitors without a local address may apply for a six-month visitor membership.
- Replacement of a lost card may involve a small published fee.

Records and retention

Membership records are reviewed after three years of inactivity.
