Purpose and scope

This document explains replacement and collection of fictional Northbridge campus cards.

Service rules

- A lost card should be frozen immediately through CampusDesk.
- The standard replacement fee is €18.
- Cards ordered before 14:00 are normally ready after one business day.
- Collection is at the East Hall service counter with photo identification.

Standard procedure

1. Freeze the missing card in CampusDesk.
2. Submit a replacement request and confirm the delivery location.
3. Pay the replacement fee through the portal.
4. Wait for the collection notice before visiting East Hall.

Exceptions and escalation

- The fee is waived when a card fails because of normal wear.
- Access problems affecting a building should be reported separately to the Campus Access Office.

Records and retention

Replacement requests are retained for 12 months; payment records follow the university finance schedule.
